From farm to fork, Food for Good unites global food and farming businesses behind the power of food to change lives.
WHAT IS FOOD FOR GOOD?
A membership network promoting sustainable food production practices and providing a forum for food industry issues.

Food for Good is unique, providing:

- Technical insight on sector news and developments
- Food-focused networking platforms and events
- Professional development opportunities
- Connections between key representatives in the food, farming and sustainability sectors
- A forum for food and farming professionals to share best practice
- And helping organisations to embed responsibility into their core business

Membership fees directly support Farm Africa’s programmes across eastern Africa, helping smallholder farmers build thriving businesses.

Food for Good annual membership: £6k (+VAT)

For more information on becoming a member and how Food for Good can benefit you and your organisation, contact Charlotte Senior at charlottes@farmafrica.org

Farm Africa, the NGO of choice for the food industry, works from soil to supermarket to develop thriving well-functioning markets that benefit smallholder farmers in eastern Africa.

Registered charity no. 326901 (England & Wales)